

ASIA
SPRING
SINGAPORE
RIVER HONGBAO FESTIVAL

- Dates of Organization:

✚ The event will run for 10 days from January 23 to February 1.

• Festival Details:

✚ River Hongbao has been on the list of Singapore's annual traditional festivals since 1986. Until now, this iconic event has become an indispensable tradition in the Lunar New Year celebrations of the country. Singapore for both locals and foreign tourists.

✚ This is an ideal opportunity for everyone to pray together for a happy new year.

The River Hongbao event is usually held at the splendid Floating Platform in Marina Bay with a series of street art performances, night market shopping, entertainment activities for children, adults and Even the elderly create an ideal playground for the whole family

✚ This lively festival offers a special Chinese cultural experience – from giant lanterns to mouthwatering food. This is a sensory feast for travelers.

✚ When coming to the festival, visitors will have to admire the extremely impressive lanterns, depicting images from Chinese myths and legends, hand-made by craftsmen from China right here. place.

✚ During the festival, there is also a cultural exchange between Singapore and China, impressive performances by humorous artists are always eagerly awaited by the people. Along with that, there are rich Chinese cultural activities such as calligraphy, quizzes or enjoying traditional dishes on New Year's Day at the food fair.

Speaking of food, along the food streets in Singapore on this occasion are stalls serving traditional Chinese dishes. Visitors here can also enjoy a brilliant fireworks display that takes place every day during the festival.

In addition, there are roller coaster rides to cosplay activities, ensuring visitors won't have a single minute of boredom. River Hongbao Festival with its vibrant scene of colorful cages mingles with The vibrant atmosphere of street performances and attractive games will surely leave an unforgettable impression in the hearts of tourists.