

ASIA
FALL
VIET NAM
TRUNG THU NEW YEAR

- Dates of Organizations:

✚ According to the lunar calendar, it is the full moon day of August every year, which is about September to October of the solar calendar

✚ This has become the Children's Day, also known as Lunar New Year or Hoa Dang Festival. Children look forward to this day because they are often given toys by adults.

● Festival Details:

✚ According to archaeologists, the image of the Mid-Autumn Festival was printed on the Ngoc Lu bronze drum. The ancient Chinese believed that the Mid-Autumn Festival originated in the Spring and Autumn period. Perhaps the Mid-Autumn Festival, which began with the wet rice civilization of the South China Plain and the Red River Delta of Vietnam, is a festival to celebrate the good harvest, when farmers rest and have fun. after a crop.

Thailansensetravel.com

Vietnam Canal

✚ According to Phan Ke Binh in the book of Vietnamese customs, the custom of hanging lights to display the feast was due to the ancient scriptures about King Duong Minh Hoang. On King Duong Minh Hoang's birthday, he commanded people everywhere to hang lights and celebrate, and since then it has become customary.

✚ On this day, during the day, people make offerings to the ancestors, and in the evening, they come to celebrate the moon.

+ The top of the feast is moon cake and uses many kinds of fruit cakes, dyed in colorful colors, red, blue, white and yellow. Girls in the street compete with each other ingenuity, peeling fruit into new shapes.

+ Also on this occasion, people buy moon cakes, tea, and wine to worship their ancestors in the evening when the full moon has just risen. Also on this day, people often give grandparents, parents, teachers, friends, relatives and other benefactors Mooncakes, fruits, tea and wine.

TORCH LIGHT

+In some rural areas, where the neighborly relationship is still preserved and cherished, it is often organized for children to carry out lanterns together throughout the village, hamlet, and neighborhood on the Mid-Autumn Festival night.

LION DANCE

+The Lion Dance is usually held before the Mid-Autumn Festival.

PRESENTATION DECK

+The usual Mid-Autumn Festival tray with the focus on the dog is made of grapefruit cloves, with 2 black beans attached as eyes. Around there are more fruits and baked goods, mixed cakes or vegetarian cakes in the shape of a mother pig with a herd of chubby piglets, or a carp.

+The typical fruits and foods of this occasion are bananas and nuggets, apricots, red and blue pickled persimmons, a few daisies...and grapefruit is an indispensable fruit.

Making Mid-Autumn Festival toys

+Masks, monk lights, star lights and lion heads are the most popular toys during the Mid-Autumn Festival.

TYPES OF CAKES

+Baked cake: usually made with mixed filling, a little sliced lemongrass, fatty meat, jam, melon seeds, and sausage.

+Deo Cake: The filling is made from cooked foods and ingredients. The cake is molded and pressed and can be used immediately.

GIFTS PROCEDURE

+During the Mid-Autumn Festival, people often give gifts to each other. Gifts are usually boxes of cakes, lanterns, clothes, money.

+The object of gift giving by adults is usually superiors such as parents, superiors, people in need, teachers or also neighbors, friends or children in the house. Usually, the more important the recipient of the gift, the higher the value of the gift must be.

✚ AND CANNOT MISS THE MOON SHINE

